

THE ACWD CONNECTION

ACWD is celebrating the completion of its Water-Efficient Landscape Demonstration Garden renovation project with an Open Garden event. The new garden has been expanded and includes more water-efficient plant varieties!

Fall is the best time to plant a water-efficient garden at your home or business, so we invite you to come by Alameda County Water District's Water-Efficient Landscape Demonstration Garden to get inspired and celebrate the beauty of water-efficient landscapes! For more information, visit:
